

Amelia Earhart For Kids

The novel opens with Aunt Polly scolding the house as much of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time. During supper, Aunt Polly tells Tom about his school. Tom tells her about his adventures and what happened at school. He tells her that his collar is still worn from the last time he was at school, but that, Tom's half brother, Sid, told him to disguise his collar.

Tom goes out of the house to play. He goes to the graveyard and finds the graves of the dead. He goes to the graveyard and finds the graves of the dead. He goes to the graveyard and finds the graves of the dead.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and decides to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom goes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white ally," a kind of marble. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.
