

American Headway 3 Writing Guide

The novel opens with Aunt Polly crossing the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom crosses home at supper time. During supper, Aunt Polly tells Tom about his absence and what everyone thinks of him. His collar is still wet with jam, but his mother, Miss Watson, tells him that he is a good boy and that he should be proud of his mischief.

Tom goes out of the house to play with his friends, Joe and Huckleberry Finn, on the streets of St. Petersburg. They find a dead cat and a box of gold coins, which they decide to keep for themselves.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and decides to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom goes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white ally," a kind of marble. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.
