

All About 50 Shades Of Grey

The novel opens with Aunt Polly crossing the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom crosses home at supper time. During supper, Aunt Polly tells Tom about his afternoon and what happened at school. Tom's collar is still wet from the jam, but he lies, saying that he had, Tom's half brother, Sid, had himself to discipline him.

Tom goes out of the house to play in the streets of St. Petersburg. He and the new arrival encounter a cat and chase the cat down all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and decides to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom goes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white ally," a kind of marble. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.
