

Am Pac 6 Clicks Scoring

The novel opens with Aunt Polly scolding the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom escapes home at supper time. During supper, Aunt Polly tells Tom about his afternoon and what happened. Tom's collar is still wet with jam, but he is still very brave. He tells Aunt Polly that he is not his father's son, but his mother's son. He tells her that he is not his father's son, but his mother's son. He tells her that he is not his father's son, but his mother's son.

Tom goes out of the house to play. He goes to the street and sees the boys. He goes to the street and sees the boys. He goes to the street and sees the boys. He goes to the street and sees the boys. He goes to the street and sees the boys. He goes to the street and sees the boys.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and decides to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom goes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white ally," a kind of marble. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.
