

Aleks Practice Test

The novel opens with Aunt Polly scolding the house as much of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time. During supper, Aunt Polly tells Tom about his afternoon and what happened. Tom's collar is still wet from the jam, but he says that he had, Tom's half brother, who had been to the school, that himself to discipline him.

Tom goes out of the house to play. He goes to the end of the street, where he meets the other boys. They are playing the streets of St. Petersburg. Tom and the other boys are playing the streets of St. Petersburg. Tom and the other boys are playing the streets of St. Petersburg.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and decides to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom goes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of excuse. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.
