

American Academy Of Audiology Superbill

The novel opens with Aunt Polly scolding the house as much of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time. During supper, Aunt Polly tells Tom about his afternoon and what everyone thought of him. Tom's collar is still wet from jam, but he is not sad, Tom's half brother, Huckleberry Finn, has decided to disguise his identity by changing his name to Jim.

Tom goes out of the house to play with his friends, exploring the streets of St. Petersburg. He meets a new arrival, a boy named Sid, and the new arrival explains to him how to play a game called "whitewash."

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and decides to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom goes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white ally," a kind of marble. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.
